The daily record of the thermometer in this city for yesterday, as kept at C. W. Brandon's drug store was: 7 a.m., 47 de-grees above; 12 m., 60 degrees above; 4 p. m., 65 degrees above; 8 p. m., 54 degrees above.

ABOUT THE CITY.

J. H. Allen has not been working or eating much these days. He has the mumps. Judge Rockwell sent Peter Curran, a hobe, to the Deer Lodge jail for 30 days yesterday.

A raffle for a lady's gold watch was held at Con O'Connor's Tuesday, night. John Doyle won.

Some papers stolen by the burglars who went through Leary & Gordon's safe were found in Estes & Connell's lumber yard yesterday morning.

Quite a number of the men in the Montana Union and Tuttle machine shops have had to lay off for a few days, all of them being afflicted with the mumps.

Brandon the druggist, has sold nearly all the vaccine virus he ordered by telegraph, and has ordered more. It is an excellent idea to be vaccinated now, as it is not only small pox season, but we have two exposed cases in out midst.

The managers of the park will have a splendid entertainment for next Sunday afternoon. The 100-yard foot race, post poned from last Sunday, a good game of base ball, standing and high jumping, are a few of the attractions down on the programme. The champion standing jumper of Butte is now in the city and may enter

In reference to John Flynn's desire to meet any Anaconda prizefighter of not more than 175 pounds in weight, any time within two weeks, in a ten-round contest for $100 and gate receipts, winner to take ail, Paddy Lee called at the STANDARD office yesterday and said that although he was only a 145-pound man, he would meet Flynn under those conditions if he will deposit a forfeit with the STANDARD. He says he is willing to use two-ounce gloves.

Miss Matthews was out driving Sunday afternoon, and while passing P. H. Dorin's house on Cedar street she jumped out of the buggy, her horse having become unmanageable. The horse ran a couple of blocks, and finally got tangled in the of blocks, and finally got tangled in the harness and was unable to go any further. Mr. Dorin went to the rescue, and after getting the horse freed, began to drive him back to where Miss Matthews was, He had hardly got the horse started when the frisky animal began to kick hard and often and swift, and when he got through with the Corinne act three wheels and the buggy whip were all right, but Mr. Dorin was dragged from under the debris with his left eye, chin, mouth and nose cut and his left eye, chin, mouth and nose out and disfigured in 11 or nine places, necessitating several stitches to hold his face to gether.

The Suicide of George E. Thomas Due Probably to Melancholy.

HIS BROTHER HEARD FROM

In Accordance With His Instructions the Body Will Be Bur-ied Here-The Jury's Verdict.

A telegram dated Knowlesville, N. Y., was received yesterday from J. C. Thomas, a brother of George E. Thomas who cut his throat with a razor at Carroll on Tuesday. The dispatch read:

See he has proper burial. Send bills to me.
Write full particulars.
In accordance with these directions, a suitable funeral will be held and the body buried in the Anaconda cemetery.

Police Magistrate Rockwell in the ca-pacity of acting coroner held an inquest pacity of acting coroner held an inquest yesterday. The facts elicited were sub-stantially the same as those printed in yesterday's STANDARD. Nothing was adduced to show the motive of the act unless it was that Thomas had become subject to melancholy. He had no inti-mate friends and was inclined to be reserved to all with whom he came in contact. About a year and a haif ago, however, he was much more cheerful than he has been lately. All the witnesses agreed that he was strictly temperate in his habits. An unfinished and unsigned letter dated May 2, supposed to be written by Thomas, was found in his possession. It was addressed to his brother. He starts off by alluding to the murder of a mutual friend in the Gallatin valley. He then speaks of the fact that he had been working odd shifts and was not doing very well financially. The jury found that the deceased came to his death by cutting his throat with his own hand. served to all with whom he came in contact.

"The Ivy Leaf" To Night. "The alacrity with which theater goers will patronize an attraction," says the New York World, referring to the engagement of W. H. Power's company in "The Ivy Leaf" in that city and which is to be seen at Evans opera house to-night, "which promises a genuine novelty is demonstrated just at present at the Grand opera house. It is something unusual to find a large audience at the opening per-formance of a play whose merits are unknown, but when the curtain went up on "The Ivy Leaf" at the Grand, there were few vacant seats in the house.
As there was no star in the company to attract such an audience it was plain that the peple had come in such was plain that the pepie had come in such-numbers mainly to see a new piece of stage mechanism, which represented an eagle soaring through the air with a child in its talons. It is a picturesque drama of Irish life, with a story of love and intrigue, pleasantly interspersed with singing and dancing. The eagle carrying away the child captured the audience. It is a clever piece of stage illusion which is realistic in its efforts. The audience was demonstra-tive.

eruptions were due to a "blood humo which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsaparillas contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptious. You have no-ticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stom-ach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean s healthful digestion purifies it and they disappear Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compou after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparilles and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. P., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently. I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared.
